

Horse Dreaming, Sound Alchemy and Creativity

“A shift in your personal world”

Byron Bay: Oct 21st - 23rd 2011

A weekend designed to show us how to reconnect with our deepest longings and realign our lives with our hearts' desires.

Please click here to watch: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wx-NQ-n-F8s>

The horses, sound alchemy and creativity come together to offer a journey into self, releasing your hidden potential and giving you fresh tools to take out into the world.

Are you ready for a turning point in your life?

Together Louise Kropach, leading horse whisperer and human facilitator and Leandra, sound alchemist, artist and teacher will lead you on a journey of self-discovery supported by the wisdom of horses.

This weekend is an opportunity to expand your self awareness and take a quantum leap forward in your life through the transcendent qualities of music, art and the profound power of reflection that the horses gift to you. Are you ready for a turning point in your life?

No horse, music or art experience necessary. All interactions with the horse are ground based, safe and gentle. For bookings and further information please call:

Louise: 041 208 5236 or Leandra: 041 840 4166

what you will discover:

- How to focus and create what is important for you and your life
- The pure joy of connecting with self, others and horses
- The multifaceted expression of you
- The joy and ease of living in the moment and how to achieve it
- Creativity will expand on the messages you receive from the horses
- The power of expression through your voice
- How to change your 'story' into 'just' information
- How to ignite your hidden potentials and carry them out into the world
- The power of self expression
